The next three weeks could easily throw some kinks into your schedule and make your routine suddenly unroutine. You have the opportunity now to iron out the wrinkles that may have been bothering you but which were somehow still left unattended. You may be wise to put great leaps forward temporarily on the backburner until you are sure there is nothing to trip you up along your way when you make your moves. This may result in coming to some reconclusions about how and with whom you deploy your creative juices. Listen to that inner voice to make sure you heard it right, then get back into gear.

Hectic reduplication, delays, and scheduling confusions will be straightening themselves out after a few weeks of necessary resorting. All that remains is to put the finishing touches on new approaches and link them all up with others who may be involved. Missed or mixed up messages are resent or clarified so everybody is back on the same page and agrees upon what the next step is going to be. A general sense of well-being supplants a certain unease born of uncertainty and you get back to your healthy glow born of knowing where you've been and focus on where you're going.

The everyday care of the smaller necessities in life are highlighted during this period. First, you may feel you are not getting your daily due and proper attention -- but then you may discover it is because you haven't really asked for what you truly want. Learning new and more satisfying ways to address your personal habits and those of others will refresh once you take a closer look. This can mean taking better care of yourself, eating what truly satisfies, and turning the necessities of the daily grind into the opportunities of ever-evolving accomplishment. Life is one thing at a time, each well done.

Venus Conjunct Saturn (Retrograde)

As Venus takes a backward jump right on your Saturn, you may have a few weeks to consider what barriers you have adopted, perhaps without realizing it, and what restrictions you have taken to heart that may not be keepers. It is one thing to accept a situation you cannot change, but quite another to choose between options. The same goes for the shoulder you lean on. Do not trade freedom for what you would like to have in your pocket if it's not necessary to do so. For the next several weeks you have the window of opportunity to sort all this out, so don't miss the chance!

Stirred and circling creative urges start to take more concrete shape now, and it's time to select those projects that have real sex appeal and drop the humdrum. Conflicting desires begin to show signs of harmony, and spontaneity becomes its own reward. The essence of choosing is the sureness of your choice, and confidence in your decisions will now begin to pick up the pace. This actually impacts on your wellness, and the better you feel, the better you are -- and the more you will accomplish as a result. Take a deep breath of desire, and you'll find it satisfies.

Venus Conjunct Saturn

Venus hiking back on your Saturn can allow you to tap resources you didn't know you had and particularly learn to make use of and take joy from opportunities you might have overlooked or thought insufficient to be of real use. The joy of efficiency, a tightly run ship, and the elegance of simple form regain appeal as a result of the disappointments of previous waste and surfeit. It's not just what you have, it's how you use it that engenders beauty and personal satisfaction. Less may not always be more, but less to tie you down and trip over returns the spring to the elastic step and strength to the resilient frame.

Sometimes painting life with a broad brush can cause you to miss messy details that then slow you down. The next three weeks are a great time to pause and make sure the rug rats and ankle biters are not in a position to sidetrack your whole operation because you ignored them. It's time to give the small things their due so they can serve your larger purpose. By doing so, you may discover a better version of your own vision as well. Don't hurry, you've got time, and you may find that in the end tapping resources you had ignored will trigger a rising tide that floats all boats, not just your own.

Mercury Conjunct Venus (Retrograde)

Mercury making a reverse move on your Venus can bring you a brand-new approach to your fundamental desires and goals in life. Feel free to change your mind like mad for a few weeks until you've rummaged through your options and figured out what and whom you want to keep, and who to get rid of. Stop chasing after what you can't get or what takes more than it's worth and align yourself to things that satisfy and are within both your reach and your grasp. Parting is no sorrow when it's something well departed, and now's the time to pick and choose. Cut the fat gladly, keep what tastes sweet.

After a few weeks of uncertainty about the big picture, your panorama on life returns somewhat amended. False starts have led to a focus on correcting details that have distracted from the overall plan, but these are being put behind you so you can return to your former path with a steadier hand on the helm. What you are putting together now will shortly have a direct effect on what people will be saying about you and your career plans, so don't toss off your ideas lightly. You will have the opportunity to impact your surroundings more than you think if you choose to, but you must make the choice.

Mercury Conjunct Venus

Mercury taking off again right on your Venus can make you first in line to get the most if you make sure you've got your name in the queue. Uncertainties clear up and second thoughts rule and supplant previous picks and best bets. After some beating around the bush, it is becoming time to state exactly what you want and whom you want it from. Make sure you phrase it just right, because if you inadvertently ask for the wrong thing, you might not get to return it so easily. Once you have let it out of the bag, there it remains -- stores may have guaranteed return policies, but people often don't.

The coming three weeks mark a period when not only hedging your bets but replacing your wagers may be just the right thing to do. When resources come up short, don't hesitate to reallocate them in order to provide yourself a firm foundation and a springboard to the future. Redesign with an eye toward giving yourself some extra padding, rather than relying on last-minute income to fill in the gap. Less is more when you streamline your operations, and that may include reshuffling the way you present yourself on a day-to-day basis, in order to become a better part of the flow of life around you.

After three weeks of readjustment, you can start getting plans back into shape for going ahead, which includes some new feathers put on your personal image. You may find you have discovered some improved ways of fitting your own leadership into the mix, which will firm up during the next few weeks and everyday rhythms get renormalized. Although it might not have seemed so a couple of weeks ago, you're increasingly glad to have had the opportunity to edit your life a bit so you can better exploit your position both socially and financially during the next month or so. Some changes will be momentary, but some will last.

Jousting for position can be the order of the day during this period, and you may find the competition gets stiff until everybody gets their territory. The trick is to avoid permanent conflicts that could haunt you later. Life can be a tournament, but it shouldn't be a war. So be ready to take as well as you give and don't stubbornly grasp at what's not worth fighting for. You'll more likely find a position by repositioning than by siege or going down with the ship. Winning is about survival, not conquest -- you needn't be the last or only one left standing at the end of the day. It's all about if you fell down, did you get up?

Mars Conjunct Sun (Retrograde)

Just when you thought you had all your energies packaged and pointed in one direction, you might find that things may scatter and get away from you for a while as Mars pauses for a retreat on you natal Sun. At first, this may seem like an inconvenience and can have a flustering effect on the best-laid plans, but in the long run it will cause you to realign your personality powers and drop what drains your vim and vigor in favor of what promotes it. You can't please everybody, so you've got to please yourself, and the coming months will flesh out what really works for you.

Throwing your energies into various forms of self-promotion may have yielded not much forward motion lately, but a turnaround is now becoming available if you corral your energies and choose a single plan of operations. Single-minded career efforts will find reward and you will be judged by your level of commitment to your own exertions. Believe in yourself and follow word with deeds -- it's the proof of the pudding where others are concerned. Where you make an impression with manifested self-confidence, there you will memory bank as they may turn up in other guises later and you'll already be halfway there. Follow through on what looks like a winner now, but don't let seemingly wasted time be forever lost by throwing away its fruits. Act selectively, but retain all.

Mercury Conjunct Saturn

As Mercury comes back to life over your Saturn, your ability to get down to brass tacks returns as well. It's time to clear out the detritus that has littered your life of late and lean on the more important stuff. That means be specific but don't waste time elaborating. Say it and do it right the first time and you won't have to repeat yourself -- and you'll earn the respect of others blessed with less decisiveness. Don't be afraid to put your foot down and ask what part of "no" they don't understand, but be judicious about where and when you do it so you don't dilute your authority.
