This can be difficult for both of you to live up to. Your relationship may also be quite productive, supporting a long-term bond with each other. There is likely a tendency toward practical and effective daily function, forcing one partner to produce or to insure the relationship in some way. The psychological aspect of this relationship may be very important for your individual spiritual growth, as well as the innovative and researching of your mutual goals. Ignites transformational aspects within you both. It may be that one person is the protagonist, or the seducer, and the other person holds the appeal that insures the relationship coming together. Reactions and jealousy, or demanding forcefulness may work against you. Yet creative urges can meet, and understanding for adjustment, or engaging in political, or in enterprises of transformational change. Paul will wish to further and make it long term.
