Brad's Sun in Sagittarius and Jennifer's Sun in Aquarius:

Outgoing and progressive, both of you enjoy busy life styles that keep you on the go. Both of you enjoy meeting new people, traveling, and keeping up with current events; even in later life both of you will stay abreast of current trends in fashion, music, arts, literature, science, and politics. Brad tends to be a bit more philosophical than Jennifer, and likes to have a sense of mission and purpose, and is sometimes prone to grandiose visions and exaggerated hopes. Neither of you are particularly sentimental and your relationship may be very friendly but somewhat detached, and fortunately this is not likely to be viewed as a problem by either of you. You both are independent; with this friend you can have the space and freedom you need. Overall, your temperaments and interests are a bit different but blend well and this should be a rewarding friendship.

Brad's Moon in Capricorn and Jennifer's Moon in Sagittarius:

Your emotional needs and deeply ingrained attitudes toward life are somewhat at odds with each other. Brad is a sober realist who tends towards cynicism and pessimism at times. Brad's security lies in work, accomplishment, and having a solid material foundation. Feelings of self-doubt often limit what Brad is willing to aim for. Fears of poverty or financial ruin may drive Brad to work excessively also. Highly responsible and conscientious, Brad tends to take life too seriously and puts business or duty before pleasure.

Jennifer, on the other hand, is essentially an optimist with an innate faith in life, a Higher Power, or simply in good luck, which gives Jennifer the confidence to take risks that Brad just doesn't feel safe or comfortable taking. Brad chooses a well-defined, secure, path over one that involves a lot of unknowns. Jennifer craves adventure, and exploring the unknown is a very real and legitimate need of Jennifer's. Jennifer needs to soar in some way (either literally, intellectually, or spiritually) while Brad needs to have both feet planted firmly on earth.

Also, Brad has good focus and concentration and the ability to persevere through difficult or dry periods, while Jennifer is often impatient and flighty. Jennifer can be too lax, careless, and irresponsible at times. Jennifer wants to have a good time and sometimes that's all Jennifer wants! Jennifer may seem like a fair-weather friend at times.

Positively, Jennifer's humor and light touch can help Brad not to worry so much, and Brad's realism can ground Jennifer and temper Jennifer's impractical enthusiasms.

Brad's Sun Conjunct Jennifer's Moon:

The two of you are, no doubt, good friends. You feel very comfortable together, and can experience a very nourishing and intimate closeness. Even if your personalities are very different, you understand each other very well.

Jennifer's Sun Conjunct Brad's Saturn:

The two of you often work well together on shared responsibilities and practical matters of importance. However, there is also a constrained, serious tone to the relationship that can make it stifling and frustrating. Brad has a strong tendency to criticize and judge Jennifer's actions, sometimes accurately and sometimes unjustly. Brad should guard against this tendency to dampen Jennifer's enthusiasm, and Jennifer needs to avoid being overly sensitive to Brad's suggestions and criticisms.

Brad's tendency to dominate, control, or even repress Jennifer makes Jennifer feel resentful at times, and Jennifer may feel lowered vitality and self-confidence after being with Brad for a long time. You must make room for lightness and play, or you both will feel burdened by the tone that is set between you.

Brad's Sun Square Jennifer's Pluto:

Your relationship is intense and complex. You engage in deep, intense discussions and encounters that unveil your innermost thoughts, feelings, goals, hopes, fears, and ambitions. This is not a superficial relationship! You are very uninhibited with each other, and you open up to each other more readily than to others. Be wary of power struggles, however, as Jennifer, in particular, may be tempted to manipulate and control Brad. Also, either of you may feel threatened, embarrassed, or disempowered by revealing so much of yourself to the other, and consequently feel the need to be secretive and competitive with each other. You have a profound influence upon one another, for good or ill.

Brad's Moon Square Jennifer's Saturn:

This relationship is not an easy one! There is a sense of responsibility towards each other that may encourage you to work together on practical, mundane, or tedious tasks together. However, you both feel emotionally constrained and inhibited by being together, and this relationship may feel like a form of imprisonment! Brad, in particular, may feel disheartened by Jennifer's criticisms, worries, fears, or need to dominate Brad's life. Brad's emotional needs and feelings are ignored and neglected at times. Most likely there is too much emphasis on responsibilities and obligations. The serious tone of the relationship also stifles play and light-hearted fun-loving activities. This relationship may endure even when your feelings towards one another have cooled because there is a great deal of stability in it and reliability and responsibility to each other, even if there is little satisfaction over time.

Brad's Moon Trine Jennifer's Pluto:

The two of you will grow to be very close friends. You are able to really "feel" what the other is saying. For example, whether you are playing sports, watching a movie, or showing each other something you really like, you find that most often you can do it with an intensity and depth of feeling that you cannot express to most people.

Brad's Moon Sextile Jennifer's Mars:

Your relationship is dynamic and energetic. If both of you enjoy athletic sports or other physical activities, you will have a wonderful time sharing these interests. You work well as a team and you are able to coordinate your efforts in a very harmonious, successful way.

Jennifer's Venus Conjunction Brad's Jupiter:

You enjoy each other's company immensely and you put each other in a happy mood. You make each other laugh and you feel very open, loose, and jovial around each other. There is a great deal of generosity between you, and you may benefit one another financially and materially as well as emotionally. A wonderful friendship!

Jennifer's Venus Square Brad's Mars:

When the two of you disagree, Jennifer is the harmonizer and peace-maker, faster to restore the affection and friendship between you, and less inclined to focus on your differences, while Brad wants to clear the air, get everything out into the open, and is more apt to force issues. Brad's assertiveness sometimes irritates Jennifer. If you spend much time together, this can be a tempestuous relationship.

Brad's Venus Square Jennifer's Saturn:

Feelings of estrangement, distance, coolness, or lack of appreciation and affection characterize your relationship from time to time, and Brad in particular feels inhibited or criticized by Jennifer. You take your commitment, responsibility, and obligations to one another seriously and you may depend heavily on one another financially or emotionally, but you tend to become too formal and rather joyless if you spend too much time together.

Brad's Venus Trine Jennifer's Pluto

You can have a very deep friendship because there is little you can hide from each other and you instinctively confide and reveal your true selves to each other. You may have met at an important crossroads or transition or crisis in your lives, which brought you close together very quickly. In any case, you have a very strong connection and appreciation for one another.

Brad's Venus Sextile Jennifer's Mars:

You inspire affection and love in one another, and have a particularly warm friendship. You also spark one another's creativity, artistic urges, and desire for beauty. This is a felicitous combination!

Given above are your compatibility scores in 8 different categories. A score of 100 is average. A score above 100 indicates that the trait is strong, and a score below 100 indicates that the trait is weak. More specifically, you can interpret the scores as follows:

Above 150 is very high. This trait is VERY strong!
125 to 150 is above average. The trait is strong.
115 to 125 is slightly above average. The trait is slightly strong.
85 to 115 is average.
75 to 115 is slightly below average. The trait is slightly weak.
50 to 75 is weak.
50 or lower is VERY weak!

Note that there is no strict dividing point in the scores so a score of about 115, for example, is at about the point where the trait is noticeably above average. As with most things in life, like height, weight, intelligence, etc., there is a gradual continuum of scores, but these dividing points are fairly good indicators of when a trait stands out as being strong or weak.

The titles of the categories are fairly self-explanatory, but here are some additional notes:

1. Romantic and Sexual Attraction: Physical appearance and other characteristics can affect how sexually two people are to one another, but sometimes you can be surprised that a person who is physically attractive is not as sexually attractive as another person, or vice versa. Astrologers believe that astrological influences have a big role as well. A very high score in Romantic and Sexual Attraction indicates that this is a hot relationship, which is exciting, but can be too hot for some people to handle, resulting in jealousy or over-emphasis on sexuality to the neglect of other sides of the relationship. A low score here does not necessarily mean that the two of you are not a good match, but just that sexuality is not likely to be the primary attraction that has brought you together.

2. Similarity of Interests and Temperament: People who are similar tend to be good friends. If your score in this category is high, you are likely to find that you have similar interests and approach life in a similar way. A high score indicates a capacity for teamwork and a likelihood of remaining friends for a long time. If your score in this category is low, then you tend to be very different, and hopefully you complement one another. As a simple example of this, one of you may be more aggressive and the other person more passive in the way you approach life. One of you may be more philosophical and abstract and the other person more inclined to be direct and deal with concrete facts. A low score in this category can lead to misunderstanding or lack of appreciation. However, if you can learn to appreciate your differences, you can utilize your individual strengths to accomplish different things that need to be done.

3. Mutual Success and High Achievement: A high score in this category indicates that the two of you are likely to plan projects together and work together to achieve goals. There is no guarantee of success in life, but the two of you do inspire one another to reach higher and to motivate one another to work to achieve your dreams. You have a dynamic relationship that keeps the two of you active, always exploring, and seeking to achieve more. The biggest negative possibility in having a high score in this category is that it pushes the two of you to achieve more and if you are unable to achieve your shared goals, you may feel frustrated or disappointed. However, if you do apply yourselves, it is likely that you will achieve your shared goals. A low score in this category indicates that the main attraction between the two of you is not to be a productive, dynamic team that can achieve a great deal. You may still achieve a great deal together but it is not the primary theme in your relationship, and it is not what brought the two of you together.

4. Problem Solving, Communication, and Mutual Understanding: A high score in this category indicates that you enjoy talking to each other, and you find that you are able to communicate well. The range of topics and interests may vary, and overall you find that you are able to establish good communication with one another. A low score in this category indicates that sharing of ideas is not the primary focus of this relationship. You may still be able to communicate clearly, but you are not likely to find yourselves talking for long hours, with one conversation leading to another in an endless stream of ideas.

5. Mutual Kindness, Friendliness, Pleasantness, and Peace: A high score in this category means that you are naturally inclined to feeling supportive and nurturing towards one another. You feel very comfortable taking care of one another, and you feel very comfortable with each other. A high score in this category is common among good friends and married couples. A high score indicates a likelihood that you can weather storms together and simply enjoy one another's company. A low score indicates that the two of you need to be careful to not be overly critical or harsh towards one another. If you refrain from being unpleasant or rough, you can develop a warm and kind relationship, but it is likely to take a bit more effort than with a person with whom you have a high score in this category.

6. Aggressiveness, Competition, Power, Success, or Violence: If either of you is inclined to be overly aggressive, dominant, or intensely driven to have power and success, then a high score in this category can lead to flare-ups and even animosity. If you have a high score in this category, you need to direct this intense energy towards a cooperative effort. You are likely to find that both of you feel impatient and driven to achieve more when you are together. If you can direct this energy positively, you can be a dynamic duo that can make things happen quickly, but both of you must be sufficiently energetic and in command of yourselves to succeed with this energy. A low score in this category helps you to be patient with one another to feel relaxed when you are together.

7. Adventurousness, Surprises, Disturbances: A high score in this category indicates that your relationship and your lives together will not proceed as expected. Expect the unexpected! The two of you attract new things into your lives and you tend to have a lively and very active life together. A low score in this category indicates that it is likely that whatever plans you may have for your relationship are not likely to be disturbed by surprises. A low score leads to a more predictable life together with fewer surprises. Surprises can be good or bad so a high score is more of a gamble. A high score works well for people who have the creativity, imagination, and stability to turn unexpected changes into opportunities for greater growth and development.

8. Shared Creativity, Imagination, and Inspiration: A high score in this category indicates that the two of you are drawn to very creative and imaginative areas together. You are a bit like children together, exploring and having fun. When you are together, you are more likely to be open-minded, receptive, and interested in creative and imaginative subjects than when either of you is by yourselves. If both of you are mature and stable, a high score can provide you with a welcome creative spirit that enables both of you to enjoy life more and to step outside mundane daily chores and responsibilities. The two of you feel inspired and you are likely to follow an idealistic dream together. You must be careful to make sure that your dreams are not the silly dreams but really do have lasting value. A low score in this category indicates that the two of you were not drawn together by fantasies and dreams, and shared idealistic dreams are not a strong shared interest of the two of you; you are more likely to deal with tangible and practical issues rather than imaginative ideals and dreams.

If you are an astrologer or student of astrologer, you may be interested in knowing how this compatibility profile is constructed. If you are not interested in the astrological factors that are analyzed, please skip this description of the astrological influences analyzed in this report. The astrological influences analyzed are as follows:

Category 1, Romantic and Sexual Attraction is based on aspects of Mars, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto to Venus between each other's charts and in the composite chart.

Category 2, Similarity of Interests and Temperament, is based on having a planet in the same zodiac sign or a similar aspect, such as both people having a major aspect between the same two planets.

Category 3, Mutual Success and High Achievement, is based on aspects of Jupiter to Sun, Mars, or Pluto, or Sun-Jupiter aspects between the charts or in the composite chart.

Category 4, Problem Solving, Communication, and Mutual Understanding, is based on aspects of any planet except Neptune to Mercury in each other's charts or in the composite chart.

Category 5, Mutual Kindness, Friendliness, Pleasantness, and Peace, is based on trines, sextile, noviles, binoviles, and quadnoviles of the Moon to Sun, Venus, or Jupiter, or of Sun to Venus between the two charts or in the composite chart.

Category 6, Aggressiveness, Competition, Power, Success, or Violence, is based on aspects of Mars to Sun, Uranus, and Pluto, or of Sun to Pluto between the two charts or in the composite chart.

Category 7, Adventurousness, Surprises, Disturbances, is based on aspects of Uranus to any planet between the charts or in the composite chart.

Category 8, Shared Creativity, Imagination, and Inspiration, is based on conjunctions, trines, sextiles, quintiles, and biquintiles of Neptune to any planet in the other person's chart or in the composite chart.

In the formula used, each aspect is given a specific value and the number of points assigned is stronger if the aspect is stronger. A mathematical formula is then used to weight the final result so that the average score is 100. Because each aspect is weighted individually, the details of the astrological analysis is very long, but this brief description gives you an idea of how the analysis is done. The number of different theories in astrology is enormous, and each astrologer uses a different combination of methods. The theories used here utilize sophisticated software to analyze many hundreds of factors into a final analysis of the compatibility in these 8 categories.
