This report is titled the "Destiny and Decisions Forecast" because there is an element of the future that you cannot change; this is your destiny. But you also have choices and options available to you; these are your decisions.

This report predicts where the planets are in the current time period, when they will be forming aspects to your natal planets, what influences these aspects bring, and how long they will last--as far into the future as you wish to look. THIS is truly PREDICTIVE ASTROLOGY!

Our report goes beyond the limitations of most astrological forecast reports in two very important ways: (1) we go into a much more detailed interpretation for the heavier aspects that could have a greater impact on your life, and (2) we include some suggestions for you to consider regarding how you may deal with the influences. This should eliminate the need for further counseling in most cases.

Your forecast begins on the next page. If the time period for an interpretation is, for example, given as "July 1, 1999 (June 15, 1999 to July 15, 1999)", then it starts in mid-June, reaches greatest intensity around July 1, and ends in mid-July. The first date listed is the time when the influence has reached maximum strength.

An influence may last for as little as a week to as long as half a year or so.

To obtain maximum benefit from this report, we recommend a periodic study and review of the information as the time period unfolds--once a week, at least, and more often when there are significant things going on in your life. It is always good to keep a diary or a journal to get a sense of the timing of the transits and a history of how they affected your life.

Following is the data from your natal chart with which the transiting planets form aspects:

5 Oct 2006 (30 Sep 2006 to 10 Oct 2006)

Jup Sextile Sun

TRANSITING JUPITER SEXTILE NATAL SUN--This is an easy transit when life just seems to flow. You are optimistic and confident. You should find that most relationships are on an even keel, even those with superiors. It is a good time for making plans and thinking "big". You can't bother to be angry, but will get along with people who are normally difficult. Sometimes there is unexpected income, and the transit is favorable for most financial efforts.

8 Oct 2006 (2 Oct 2006 to 12 Oct 2006)

Jup Trine MC

TRANSITING JUPITER TRINE THE NATAL MIDHEAVEN--This transit brings increased optimism and self-confidence. You feel capable of doing much more than ever before and are willing to make the effort. It often signifies professional success, and usually involves leadership. You may gain financially, and, if so, are likely to use it to get further ahead. If in business for yourself, you may want to expand under this transit.

12 Nov 2006 (8 Nov 2006 to 17 Nov 2006)

Jup Sextile Jup

TRANSITING JUPITER SEXTILE NATAL JUPITER--This aspect indicates a period of time when everything seems to run smoothly in your life. It is a good time to take a look and gain perspective in all areas of your life in order to take inventory of where you are and what you need. Business and professional matters should be good, and personal relationships should be positive. It is a time when growth seems to occur without much effort, and self-improvement activities are most productive. Spiritual understanding and expansion will come naturally.

15 Nov 2006 (10 Nov 2006 to 19 Nov 2006)

Jup Conj Moon

TRANSITING JUPITER CONJUNCT MOON--This a very positive transit. You feel emotionally free and very much in touch with your feelings. You also can understand and empathize with the feelings of others. You will be generous with other people, as well as yourself. Your psychological understanding is clear regarding who you are, what you are, and what brought you to where you are. You may want to spend time with old friends and family, and if you are away from home, you may want to go there. You need to watch diet for possible weight gain.

6 Dec 2006 (7 Nov 2006 to 2 Jan 2007)

Plu Conj Merc

TRANSITING PLUTO CONJUNCT NATAL MERCURY--Your concern for truth will be deepened during this transit. Your opinions and ideas may change considerably and you will want to get to the bottom of all issues that concern you, and you will not let anything stand in your way. If you can remain flexible enough to learn at all times, this transit can bring you a tremendous new understanding about life. You may want to teach others what you have received, but you will need to watch out for obsession and fanaticism. On the other hand, others may try to force their own obsessions upon you. You will need to seek the higher spiritual meaning of new ideas and apply their regenerative influences to the greater good of humanity.

15 Dec 2006 (11 Dec 2006 to 20 Dec 2006)

Jup Sqr Ven

TRANSITING JUPITER SQUARE VENUS--This transit tends to make you feel warm and loving, but the problem is in the expression of those feelings. It may produce a lassitude and passivity, which, if interrupted, will turn into reproach. It could attract a significant love relationship, or somehow affirm one already in existence. However, it might not be a very comfortable relationship. You should be aware that, whatever the feelings now, the experience is necessary for your growth in romantic matters.

23 Dec 2006 (18 Dec 2006 to 28 Dec 2006)

Jup Sextile Nep

TRANSITING JUPITER SEXTILE NATAL NEPTUNE--This transit is likely to enhance your optimism in terms of fulfilling idealistic life goals, and influence you to formulate goals for the Self in more idealistic terms. You will have a strong desire to experience higher aspects of existence, and are likely to turn to spiritual pursuits for greater fulfillment of the Self. You will be motivated to help others, and your empathy will be great. You may feel that filling your own needs is less urgent during this transit, and will get great satisfaction from working with charities or other institutions that help the less fortunate. Spiritual growth will be gained, especially in the area of Universal knowledge. You could feel expansive and overly lucky to the point that you think you can't lose, especially if you are tempted to gamble. Neptune is the great deceiver, so caution is recommended.

7 Jan 2007 (2 Jan 2007 to 12 Jan 2007)

Jup Trine Plu

TRANSITING JUPITER TRINE NATAL PLUTO--This aspect indicates a time for making creative changes in your life, for positive reforming of your immediate surroundings, and for sharing an upward regeneration with others in your life. This is a very powerful aspect, but cannot be used selfishly and work to your advantage. You can be in a leadership position only with the highest ideals in mind, and when this happens, everything in your world is likely to improve. You can be the catalyst. On the other hand, regenerative changes may occur spontaneously in your world, without any effort on your part, through which you will benefit considerably. Either this aspect will transform you by transforming your surroundings, or you will become the vehicle through which your world is transformed. Either way, you benefit along with your friends, neighbors, and your everyday environment. On a personal level, spiritual "rebirth" could be the form of your regeneration through understanding the deeper significance of your life and having it transform your being. If this happens, you will want to share with others what you have learned through the process.

8 Jan 2007 (3 Jan 2007 to 13 Jan 2007)

Jup Oppos Ura

TRANSITING JUPITER OPPOSITE NATAL URANUS--This transit triggers a desire to remove restrictions and unnecessary obligations from your life. Often at the time the transit is exact, there will be a sudden break from some limiting factor. It has been described as a "Thank the Lord" transit because of the feelings of relief when you are freed from whatever it is that has been limiting you. However, you do need to review your life carefully and not throw away the good with the bad. Relationships are especially vulnerable at this time. Those that are not working well may be renewed, if complete honesty and cooperation can be achieved. However, if they will not be good for the long run, they are likely to be permanently terminated now. Some of the changes may be painful, but if they are necessary, you are more than likely to deal with them during this transit. Even if it is disruptive, this is a valuable transit to help you begin living your life at its fullest potential.

14 Jan 2007 (17 Dec 2006 to 17 Feb 2007) Plu Sqr Jup

TRANSITING PLUTO SQUARE NATAL JUPITER--This transit represents the drive to actualize an ideal you hold about how the world ought to be. It can cause you to drive yourself and others around you up the wall trying to achieve some degree of perfectionism. There is a danger here--you could become arrogant, controlling, and domineering to all of those around you, as if your way is law. You could have a strong desire to manipulate others, and not to respect their wishes or values. Before you try to improve everyone around you, strive to improve yourself. Gain a greater understanding of the truth in your world, but don't try to force your conclusions upon those around you. Also, try to avoid any conflict that could wind up in a court of law, since you would probably not win. The positive side of this transit is deep and subtle. It gives you the drive and the opportunity to make yourself over according to your own ideals, provided you can allow humility to override ego and honestly see the things you need to improve.

8 Feb 2007 (1 Feb 2007 to 15 Feb 2007) Jup Sextile Ascendant

TRANSITING JUPITER SEXTILE THE NATAL ASCENDANT--This is the "social" transit. Contacts with other people advance you in all the areas of your life at this time. It is not the time to go it alone. Business, career, hobbies, artistic endeavors, and material gains can happen during this transit, and mostly through social situations. You will also have the opportunity to expand your contacts with the larger world, possibly through travel.

23 June 2007 (27 May 2007 to 21 July 2007) Ura Sextile Sun

TRANSITING URANUS SEXTILE NATAL SUN--The influences of this transit are not spectacular, but you could experience many kinds of new and stimulating happenings in your life. Specifically, you can expect sudden opportunities to come up in connection with activities in which it is vital to really express yourself. They could involve new people, new philosophies, and/or new techniques for managing your life. The transit strongly favors the study of astrology. All things during this time seem to support your desire for greater freedom of expression. You are not getting anything you haven't earned--this aspect is telling you who you really are.

Your mind, point of view, and style of thinking and communicating have reached a point of stability. At this time you have an unusual ability to see every intricate piece of a whole, and your position in most matters will be clear. Give your ideas definite form and stability at this time for they will be challenged in the future. However, not to the point of rigidity. Keep flexible.

18 Aug 2007 (10 Aug 2007 to 25 Aug 2007)

Sat Sqr Moon

TRANSITING SATURN SQUARE NATAL MOON--This can be a difficult square where the ego and the emotions are concerned. Saturn provides structure and discipline for the ego and the Moon's emotional influences do not take well to discipline, even when needed. With this transit, the ego needs "square off" against the emotional needs. This can take the form of the demands of your job vs. the demands of a relationship, or of personal achievement as opposed to domestic peace and tranquility, when all these needs could be equally important. The key is to get them all working together. These elements of your life are not likely to really be in conflict--though they feel like they are. You may have to change some priorities, de-emphasize some activities, and spend more time on others which have not been getting their share of the attention. The purpose of this transit is to get your attention. When accepted for what it is, it can be a very powerful transit for helping provide some much needed balance in your life.

7 Sep 2007 (10 July 2007 to 2 Nov 2007)

Plu conj Merc

TRANSITING PLUTO CONJUNCT NATAL MERCURY--Your concern for truth will be deepened during this transit. Your opinions and ideas may change considerably and you will want to get to the bottom of all issues that concern you, and you will not let anything stand in your way. If you can remain flexible enough to learn at all times, this transit can bring you a tremendous new understanding about life. You may want to teach others what you have received, but you will need to watch out for obsession and fanaticism. On the other hand, others may try to force their own obsessions upon you. You will need to seek the higher spiritual meaning of new ideas and apply their regenerative influences to the greater good of humanity.

28 Sep 2007 (19 Sep 2007 to 7 Oct 2007) Sat Trine Mars

TRANSITING SATURN TRINE NATAL MARS--This aspect indicates a time when you are content to be patient and work hard and slowly toward your goals. You can express your energies in a careful and controlled manner, and are able to organize many small details into an overall pattern to accomplish larger tasks. It is a good time for any kind of work that requires precision and concentration. It is not a glamorous transit, but is a powerful time for getting things done.
