Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Leo on the First Cusp

You possess a personal magnetic appeal that draws admiration from others. You have self-assurance, coupled with a dramatic flair that desires to be the center of attention. You may speak more loudly than you have in the past. You want very much for others to hear your opinions and may, at times, be too aggressive in the attempt. Upgrading your appearance is important, as you seek the latest styles and better quality. You want to project an air of authority, and you long for personal independence in your career. If you do not have your own business, you would prefer the role of leadership in a supervisory position. This is the time to undertake new studies that can aid you in the career of your choice. Romance and investments are highlighted -- as are the affairs of children (not necessarily your own). Someone within your immediate environment may experience problems with their eyes, back, or heart. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Sun, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Jupiter in the First House

There is a distinctive positive change in your personality. Self-expression radiates through an optimistic spirit of cheerfulness, sincerity, and pleasant mannerisms. The influence of this planet is always more or less fortunate. Being the planet of luck, it can bring opportunities for successful enterprise, business, travel, or continuing your education. An excellent placement for writers, educators, religious individuals, and wide-scale communication systems such as those connected with the U. S. Postal Service, radio, television, newspaper, published material, interstate travel, exports, and aeronautics. Involvement in lawsuits or seeking legal action against another is possible. In-laws people from all walks of life, background, race, and professional standing, will enter your life.

Jupiter Conjunction Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Nov 11, 2007

You are entering a cheerful, happy, three-year trend in which everything appears to be going well -- in fact, too well to the point of over optimism and probable overextension of personal finances. You can enjoy great success in almost any area if you can control the tendency toward over expansiveness -- seeing more in opportunities than is really there. Matters to do with travel, religion, publication, higher education, and in-laws will play a prominent role. New contacts or connections can be beneficial. This influence often coincides with marriage and birth of children. This can be a lucky trend if all matters are kept in proper perspective and moderation.

Pluto in the First House

There is a noticeable change in your personality. You are projecting an air of reserve, solitude, and secrecy. A feeling of personal loneliness may engulf you from time to time. You are becoming obstinate in your views, and developing the principle of a law unto oneself. You may quietly listen to the advice of others, but whether you heed it or not is questionable. There is innate will power to banish undesirable personality traits, correct unpleasant habits, and bring disturbing conditions to a halt. Periodic changes of personal affairs are likely to occur. They open doors to new avenues of experience, while at the same time closing doors to past situations. Should you return to any of these past conditions, the circumstances will not be the same, meriting a different set of rules.

Matters connected with alimony, inheritance, consolidation of bills, bankruptcy, taxes, and other forms of joint financial resources will require personal attention.

Virgo on the Second Cusp

Constructive developments, either through work or business, can enhance your financial structure. Although formerly you may have detested routine work, you will probably find yourself in a position where proper attention to details will be required. Your daily routine may involve keeping records of travel expenses or of special equipment purchased in your line of work. You may be spending more than you have in the past for health care or products -- not necessarily for yourself, but possibly for your marriage partner or a domestic pet.

Libra on the Third Cusp

Circumstances warrant a diplomatic approach in your everyday contact with others. You may find yourself in the role of doing public relations work where finesse, charm, and a persuasive manner are a must. You may make a considerable number of short trips in connection with pleasures, social activities, and business. Companionships will be an essential factor to your mental well being, as you find little pleasure in doing things alone. It is possible that you may enter into some kind of mutual enterprise with a brother or sister. In other cases, you may have to keep records for your marriage or business partner.

Neptune in the Third House

Intuition and a capacity for visualization may be highly developed. There is the uncanny knack for reading other people's minds or voicing the thoughts they were about to convey at that time. The unusual in studies and subjects intrigues you. You have an imaginative mind that can be quite successful in the writing of articles or books. To succeed in this area, there is a need for self-discipline and concentration to avoid the tendency for mental drifting and daydreaming. Messages have a way of getting confused or mixed-up. Make it a point to double-check before venturing to a planned meeting place. Always review business agreements, and read the small print to avoid misunderstandings. Keep a map handy in the glove compartment in case of detours and necessary re-routing, to avoid the possibility of getting lost. Others will feel your sensitivity and begin confiding in you. Don't pass on any of the proffered information. Gossip or rumors invariably will come back to you and cause embarrassment. Brothers, sisters, and other close relations may be a source for concern, with health problems that are difficult to diagnose or require medication to control. Be ready to assist those that appear confused, or those that place too much reliance on drugs or alcoholic beverages.

Scorpio on the Fourth Cusp

There appears to be a lot of tension, emotional upheaval, and turbulent events surrounding your home life. This may account for your desire to be a loner, remain aloof, and keep your private life to yourself. Changes are likely to occur regarding property and finances. Severe weather conditions may have damaged your home, requiring insurance settlements and a rebuilding of the unit. Or, job and marriage difficulties may call for a second mortgage. In some cases there is loss of a family member, usually a grandparent. Whatever the situation may be, you have the extraordinary will-power to handle it. This sign is associated with surgery on the sexual parts in connection with one of the parents.

Saturn in the Fourth House

You are becoming extremely security-minded with a strong desire for an organized life. You want to own property away from the close scrutiny of neighbors, surrounded by woods and land. You have the ability to save and accumulate money or possessions as you become more prudent in financial matters. A deep sense of responsibility appears to surround your home base. Perhaps your present environment is creating more work and upkeep than you first anticipated. Your mortgage payments may be burdensome. Or a parent may come to share your home, restricting your personal freedom and social life. Benefits are possible through a parent or other members of the family.

Sagittarius on the Fifth Cusp

It is possible to play the role of instructor during this trend. You are quite versatile in your hobbies and talents. Why not contact your local adult education center and see what you can offer? You are less intense in your romantic attachments, seeking partners that are more outgoing, sports minded, and of the same intellectual caliber. Children are thinking about a college education. Others may move to distant cities, which may activate future travels on your part. At some point during this trend, you may have to assist a child in resolving a legal issue. Your second sibling may temporarily relocate. If interested in investments, look to foreign products, exports, airlines, and sporting goods.

Mars in Sagittarius

Others will begin to notice and like your genial nature and relaxed attitude as Mars progresses into the sign of Sagittarius. New channels for increased physical energy may lead to active participation in sports or health spas. You may decide to further your education or be required to learn new mechanical skills through on-the-job training programs. A certain degree of restlessness is likely to prevail. If not kept under control, boredom can lead to dissipation of interests, involving you in more projects that you can possibly handle effectively. You may also think you have more time than there actually is. When you get behind, you have to rush to try and get it all finished. Sometimes this rushing results in careless accidents to the hip, joints, or lower back. Brothers-in-law, foreigners, men who reside in distant cities, and those from professional backgrounds may have some influence upon your life.

Mars in the Fifth House

There is a possibility of extraordinary achievements as you strive for personal attainments and advancements in your sphere. Your energy flows in a dramatic fashion when you are the center of attention. Personal goals lean toward recognition and the desire to be in the limelight. Guard against hasty or impulsive actions regarding investment programs and gambling. You may be too impulsive and tend to make snap judgments without proper forethought. Try to keep your sensual emotions and ardent affections under control to avoid rash and unfortunate attractions toward the opposite sex. Situations involving children will be quite stimulating and invigorating, but also a source of friction which can lead to arguments. This placement of Mars is associated with accidents that may require surgery, or one involving a child.

Mars Trine Pluto (Prg-Prg) Aug 27, 2007

You can achieve success through extraordinary energy and work requiring physical endurance. You have the willpower and the self-confidence to push for greater personal goals and achievements. The main hidden factor of your personality lies in your ability to achieve a position of power or control over situations or people. You can succeed in any enterprise or undertaking because of your ability to work long and hard toward the accomplishment of your goal. This is an excellent influence for those in the gymnastic field or athletics requiring strenuous physical exertion. You can gain through police, security, or investigative work; also through joint finances, taxes, and inheritance. Women are likely to meet men who are sexually and magnetically attractive, and who may be in a position of authority and influence.

Capricorn on the Sixth Cusp

You are developing strong traits in organizing ability, efficiency, and acceptance of responsibility. You work well alone, and at some time during this trend, you may have to work the evening or night shift. There is a strong possibility you may work for the government, or there may be a governmental contract at your place of employment that requires you to wear an identification badge during this trend. If you are on salary, there is the tendency for supervisors to burden you with more than your share of work. Your only alternative is to demand extra monetary compensation. Make it a point to have lots of hot beverages and plenty of soup during winter months to keep the body temperature warm.

Mercury in Aquarius

Circumstances surrounding mental application in your personal or professional life have or will undergo a major change. In the past, you were content to work quietly, behind the scenes, in self-imposed isolation. This appears to be changing. Situations are placing you in a position where there is more contact with people. The field of industry and commercials may require new learning techniques. Computers, radio, TV, electronics, and possibly astrology may become part of your everyday routine. There is a lessening of mental depression as your mind develops a more positive outlook. You may attend lectures or conventions or participate in group activities for the exchange of ideas and to expand or broaden your mental outlook.

Mercury in the Sixth House

Others will recognize and respect your expertise and patience in handling detailed tasks. No matter what kind of work you do, whether it is in a specialized skill or as a lecturer, instructor, or office clerk, you have the knack of coming across with uncanny clarity and understanding. Jobs that offer a variety of tasks are more apt to hold your attention, for you have the tendency to get bored easily. Your present vocation may require additional training or studies to insure future advancements. Avoid becoming too concerned with details and perfection, which can take its toll on your health. Your state of mind can affect your physical condition, so always maintain a positive attitude and avoid undue worry and stress.

Aquarius on the Seventh Cusp

Friends, clubs, and associations will be instrumental in providing you with an active social life. You are seeking a marriage or business partner who can act independently and decisively -- but not erratically, for you are a fixed sign and like a certain amount of routine in your everyday existence. Accept your partner's needs and desires for close friendships, whether you approve of them or not.

Sun in Pisces

The psychological changes of your character, due to the progression of Sun in Pisces, are very pronounced. Your nature is slowly turning inward, becoming more sensitive, emotional, sentimental, and impressionable. Your interest in new friendships and organizational activities will lessen as the desire for isolation and solitude increases. The tendency is toward secrecy and the probability of leading a double life. New occupational interests may involve chemicals, paints, security police, hospitals, institutions, or bars. Being too trusting at this time may incur serious repercussions. False friends and secret enemies can create unforeseen problems. Individuals with clairvoyance or mediumship ability may enter your life. Relationships with men can vary from one extreme to another. Some may be sensitive, caring, sympathetic, and artistic, while others can be deceptive and perhaps too much under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

Sun in the Seventh House

Social affairs, feelings, and emotions, are all emphasized at this time. There is a strong desire to establish a close relationship through marriage, business, or companionships. Your popularity is on an upward trend, which is reinforced through cooperative actions with others. Your ego, sense of pride, and self-confidence will be conditioned according to the treatment and reactions you receive from male companions who enter your life. One may encourage you to the heights of public recognition, while another can dash your ambitions and aspirations to the ground. This is a good placement for those seeking a position in public relations or management.

Pisces on the Eighth Cusp

You have a vivid imagination when it comes to sexual fantasy. The ideal romantic atmosphere would include a mixed drink or two, sheer lingerie, dim lights, soft music, and the pitter-patter of rain drops on the window pane. You are also quite sensitive and easily hurt if someone should criticize your sexual proclivities. Always make it a point to save your receipts and records with major purchases. It will help you avoid a constant flow of confusion through billing systems and computers that keep insisting you owe them money. Be alert to possible deception through partnership funds or investment schemes. During this trend it is possible that institutional or private care of someone who is emotionally, mentally, or physically ill may be financially draining.

Aries on the Ninth Cusp

Distant matters, higher education, and travel will require your personal attention. It is possible you will take a course in the martial arts or learn the basic rules of sports such as volleyball ball or racquetball. You may have to travel alone from time to time, perhaps in connection with your vocation. Legal action on your part is likely to be over mechanical defects of a large purchase or a possible accident.

Venus in Aries

The planet Venus is associated with sociability, love, and sense of harmony. Now that she has progressed into the positive sign of Aries, you will not be as vulnerable in love relationships as you have been in the past. You will be more aggressive and, at times, take the initiative where action is slow in developing. Be alert to new creative ideas and, if single, new love interests. Guard against extravagance and impulsive spending. Don't be too hasty in joining partnerships or entering into marriage. Give yourself time to evaluate the pros and cons of every new venture or opportunity that is destined to come your way.

Venus in the Ninth House

Your attractive personality, grace, charm, and tactful manner, increase popularity with others. There is a good deal of interest and appreciation for the fine arts and music. Your diplomatic nature would be a big plus in public relations work or the media. It is how you express your words, not what you say, that sways the public to your line of thought. There is great rapport with foreigners and with women you meet while traveling. These individuals can be of beneficial assistance and may provide opportunities for future expansion and financial gain. You love to travel, but it must be first class all the way. Romance appears likely with a person of a different background or educational level, or someone you meet through travel conditions.

Venus Sesquiquadrate Saturn (Prg-Nat) May 11, 2006

You are entering a restrictive period in regard to social affairs and companionships. You appear to be lost, lonely, unloved, and inhibited. Even when you are out with a select group of friends, you seem isolated or detached, with an inner sense of personal loneliness. Love relationships are disappointing, and you may find it difficult to meet anyone new. This is not the time for expansion in business, signing contracts, or financial investments. You'll find that older people or those in authority are not responsive to your needs.

Venus Square Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Jan 20, 2007

Your emotions and feelings are ultra-sensitive at this time. This can create a problem when dealing with women, romantic attachments and business or marital partnerships. Guard against extravagance and unwise or risky ventures that can result in financial loss. Have your reproductive system checked, as well as any potential for blood clots, growths, and varicose veins.

Venus Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Dec 17, 2007

You will have to guard against extravagant tendencies. Paying particular attention to social expenditures and travel for pleasure, for either can deplete your personal funds. It is inadvisable to form attachments with individuals of questionable background, or to lend them any money. This is an unfortunate time for domestic affairs, conflicts with in-laws, or legal entanglements. There is a possibility that you may be separated from a loved one through enforced travel or relocation.

Taurus on the Tenth Cusp

Your goal in life at this time is to advance financially in your chosen profession. You would like nothing better than to make a lucky coup in some business venture. Financial situations require careful watching. Overextension of monetary affairs can lead to damaged credit ratings, consolidating of bills, or obtaining a second mortgage. A parent may be a good source for financial assistance.

Gemini on the Eleventh Cusp

You will make new friends who are witty, active, and intellectual. Clubs, organizations, and group activities involving manual dexterity and quickness of motion (such as golfing, racquetball, volleyball, or karate) will hold strong interest. There is the possibility of a secretarial position or keeping records for an organization. Your present hopes and wishes appear to be based on educational advancements.

Moon in Cancer

Parents, home, and family affairs will demand much of your personal attention. You may decide to purchase, sell, move, enlarge, remodel, or make important decisions regarding property or real estate. This is a vulnerable period in which you may be overly concerned regarding future security. You may desire to pay off large debts, strive to complete the last of the home mortgage payments, or hope to save enough to make a down payment on your first home. You are likely to run the gamut of emotions -- from a mental high to emotional insecurity. This temperamental state of affairs can lead to possible weight increase due to a tendency to overeat when rejected or hurt. There is the possibility of family increase through marriage or birth of children, if not to you, then perhaps to a close member of the family. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life upon which emotional vulnerability is likely to react.

Moon in the Eleventh House

You are entering a phase in which events of an unexpected nature are likely to occur. The many sudden ups and downs in situations will make it impossible to maintain a normal routine existence. An interest in group-related activities is likely to be promoted at this time, increasing the probability of starting or enrolling in a club or organization. New friends will enter your social circle. Some will be conducive to your wellbeing, while others may be a source of emotional drain. This placement also highlights activities in connection with daughters- or sons-in-laws and step-children. Note the sign position of your progressed Moon for further indications of friends and associations.

Moon Trine Mars (Prg-Nat) Mar 28, 2006

The following three months can be a highly productive period if your energy flow is properly directed. Make positive use of all opportunities that come your way. Be ambitious and enterprising, and push personal affairs toward new ventures and undertakings. Be assertive in changing your lifestyle or environment if you feel hindered in your present situation. This is a good time to travel, purchase a new car, or tackle projects that require extra energy.

Moon Trine Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Apr 23, 2006

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Moon Quincunx Mars (Prg-Prg) Jun 12, 2006

These three months can yield constructive energy if applied wisely. You will be able to accomplish much in the way of hard work or the handling of difficult tasks. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and forego new attachments until this trend has passed. This is not the best time for travel, working with mechanical equipment, or machinery. Avoid excitement and over activity, especially if you exercise.

Moon Conjunction Uranus (Prg-Prg) Aug 15, 2006

Expect the unexpected; unusual circumstances and surprising experiences to occur in the months ahead. All kinds of advantages and disadvantages may produce sudden and unforeseen changes in personal and domestic affairs. Magnetic conditions may form sudden and sometimes unconventional attachments -- not the conventional relationship that one would normally expect. These sudden changes may introduce an entirely new condition or event that will have a noticeable influence upon your life. Your general disposition may be somewhat irritable or belligerent. Caution is advised against hasty or rash behavior.

Moon Trine Saturn (Prg-Nat) Aug 20, 2006

Conditions should be rather calm during the next three months, with a steadying influence that holds the promise of long-range benefits. Benefits that will not vanish after this trend has passed, but will continue to produce permanent advantages. At this time you have the ability to work in seclusion on hard and difficult tasks. Gains or advancements may result from good organizing ability and a willingness to carry out responsibilities and duties without hesitation. Government officials, those in authority, a parent, or friends of sobering attitudes may prove to be of assistance. There may be public recognition for past efforts and hard work. This is a time to consider long-term plans for future gains, rather than immediate results.

Moon Opposition Mercury (Prg-Nat) Aug 23, 2006

You may be faced with an important decision during the coming months. As long as you don't overreach yourself and are cautious with written or verbal agreements, you should not have any real problems. Disputes can be avoided if you don't jump to conclusions and if you apply discretion in all you say or do. Moderation is the theme word in all confrontations. There may be a change of plans, requiring a compromise. Avoid traveling more than necessary. Brothers, sisters, and close kin may be a source of concern or aggravation.

Moon Sextile Moon (Prg-Nat) Sep 10, 2006

Beneficial changes of minor consequences should make for an interesting period. This is a good time to seek occupational changes, make new friends, travel, move, or purchase real estate. Women, in particular and people in general will sense your emotional sensitivity and possibly be of beneficial assistance in personal or business interests.

Moon Square Neptune (Prg-Nat) Sep 14, 2006

You may feel an urgency to temporarily escape from reality by seeking hidden places of isolation either physically or mentally. You may wish to escape from all the confusing elements that appear to be surrounding your environment at this time. You may have frightening or weird experiences with ghosts or possible contacts with past deceased individuals. Upsetting dreams or nightmares may cause sleepless nights. Be careful in dealings with others who, through some unusual influence, may try to deceive or drain you of your vitality and energy. Trying conditions or events can make this a sorrowful time, bringing you in touch with individuals who may be terribly ill and who may draw upon your impressionable and supersensitive sympathies.

Expect the unexpected; unusual circumstances and surprising experiences to occur in the months ahead. All kinds of advantages and disadvantages may produce sudden and unforeseen changes in personal and domestic affairs. Magnetic conditions may form sudden and sometimes unconventional attachments -- not the conventional relationship that one would normally expect. These sudden changes may introduce an entirely new condition or event that will have a noticeable influence upon your life. Your general disposition may be somewhat irritable or belligerent. Caution is advised against hasty or rash behavior.

Conditions should be rather calm during the next three months, with a steadying influence that holds the promise of long-range benefits. Benefits that will not vanish after this trend has passed, but will continue to produce permanent advantages. At this time you have the ability to work in seclusion on hard and difficult tasks. Gains or advancements may result from good organizing ability and a willingness to carry out responsibilities and duties without hesitation. Government officials, those in authority, a parent, or friends of sobering attitudes may prove to be of assistance. There may be public recognition for past efforts and hard work. This is a time to consider long-term plans for future gains, rather than immediate results.

Moon Quincunx Sun (Prg-Prg) Dec 24, 2006

Safeguard your health, as there may be a noticeable change in your physical stamina. It may be due to a stressful and emotional condition involving the care or responsibility of another individual. Or you may be working extra hours at your place of employment, with lots of hard or detailed work. You will have to make some kind of adaptation or adjustments in your daily routine if you are to handle all that will be required of you. It is not necessary to tackle all the problems alone. Seek the assistance of others, even if you have to lower your pride a bit in the asking of their help.

Moon Opposition Mercury (Prg-Prg) Mar 29, 2007

You may be faced with an important decision during the coming months. As long as you don't overreach yourself and are cautious with written or verbal agreements, you should not have any real problems. Disputes can be avoided if you don't jump to conclusions and if you apply discretion in all you say or do. Moderation is the theme word in all confrontations. There may be a change of plans, requiring a compromise. Avoid traveling more than necessary. Brothers, sisters, and close kin may be a source of concern or aggravation.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Apr 29, 2007

There is a possibility of undesirable changes in the domestic circle or through one's career. Emotional instability can push you into seeking an ultimatum from those you love the most. A new boss with whom you do not get along can cause emotional upsets. Affairs of grandparents or a parent may require your personal attention and concern. You may find yourself being drawn into the unpleasant task of resolving a family crisis. Parents can be quite demanding of your time and attention during this trend.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Mars (Prg-Prg) Jul 6, 2007

Impulsive decisions or hasty actions can lead to possible accidents or quarrels with loved ones. Abrupt statements made at this time are likely to be cause for regret later. Don't push for important changes or take unnecessary risks. Work out this excessive energy through repairing, painting, or completion of difficult tasks. Be aware that certain risks are involved. Use caution in new undertakings or ventures.

You will have to be selective of close associations, friends, and the opposite sex during this short duration of three months. It can be a trying time for feelings and emotions, one that may call for a compromise and a yielding to the wishes of another to avoid a break-up or temporary separation. An emotional confrontation can result in hurt feelings, disappointments, or sorrow over what has been said or done. A possible disagreement over the handling of monetary or domestic affairs can create painful conflicts. It would be wise to avoid close contacts with women in general, until this trend has passed.

Moon Semisquare Moon (Prg-Nat) Sep 16, 2007

Take time out for frequent rest periods or brief naps as your vitality and energy level are rather low. The next three months are not the best time to seek favors from women in general. Emotional instability may cause one to over-react to minor, yet critical statements made by others. Family members may not be as cooperative as you would like. It is an emotionally trying time, in which you should seek quiet periods of isolation, and avoid public contacts for a while.

Moon Trine Venus (Prg-Prg) Oct 6, 2007

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be one of the best periods for financial success and social advancements. Your feelings and emotions are aroused and will find a satisfactory outlet through present or new attachments. Should situations permit, this may be the time for engagements or marriage. Social functions, invitations, and receiving of flowers or gifts are highlighted. One may also look forward to a prosperous time for finances or investments. While these opportunities may present themselves, it will be up to you to take the initiative and promote these activities into action.

Cancer on the Twelfth Cusp

You are super sensitive about criticism and rejection from others. You won't wear your heart on your sleeve. No one will ever know the emotional hurt you experience, because it is so deeply imbedded and hidden. You have strong maternal and protective instincts for the handicapped and the downtrodden. Environmental conditions can affect your emotional state. You require an atmosphere of tranquility and harmony before you can function well.

Uranus in the Twelfth House

Unforeseen circumstances or situations may restrict you from forming close ties with friends or taking an active role in any club or organization. Perhaps it is your job or responsibility with young children that is turning you into a loner, creating a sort of isolated condition. For those who are active with associations, you may feel as though your hard work and volunteer efforts are going unnoticed and unappreciated. After a while, you may lessen your activities and take a passive role. From time to time, you may receive unexpected good fortune from forgotten or hidden issues, or unexpected gifts from friends who want to repay you for past favors. Treat some of your friends with "kid gloves," for they may turn into secret enemies. This placement is associated with sudden and unexpected trips to the hospital with a member of the family.
